The exchange rate is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events. In addition, if GDH Ltd. or the Successor Company, as applicable, undergoes a "fundamental change", subject to certain conditions, holders of Notes may require the Issuer to repurchase for cash all or any portion of their Notes in principal amounts of $250,000 or an integral multiple thereof.

Galaxy Digital intends to use the proceeds from the Notes offering to accelerate growth initiatives across its business lines and for general corporate purposes.

As previously announced, the Company's board of directors has approved a proposed corporate reorganization (the "Reorganization") whereby Galaxy Digital intends to consummate a series of related transactions in connection with its re-domiciliation to the United States. Subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions and during certain periods, holders of the Notes may opt to exchange such Notes (i) prior to the Reorganization, for ordinary shares of GDH Ltd. (the "Ordinary Shares"), and (ii) following the Reorganization, for shares of Class A common stock (the "Class A Shares") of Galaxy Digital Inc., a newly formed Delaware holding company (the "Successor Company"), or in each case, at the Issuer's election, cash or a combination thereof.

The exchange rate will initially be 7,498.2210 Ordinary Shares per $250,000 principal amount of Notes, equivalent to an initial exchange

The Notes will mature on December 15, 2026 unless earlier exchanged, redeemed or repurchased. Interest on the Notes will be payable on June 15 and December 15 of each year, beginning on June 15, 2022. The Notes are general senior unsecured obligations of the Issuer.

The Issuer may not redeem the Notes prior to December 15, 2024. The Issuer may redeem for cash all or part of the Notes, at its option, from time to time on or after December 15, 2024 if the last reported sale price per Ordinary Share or Class A Share, as applicable, has been at least 130% of the exchange price then in effect for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) during any 30 consecutive trading day period ending on, and including, the trading day immediately preceding the date on which the Issuer provides notice of redemption, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date.

The Notes were offered and sold only to persons who are both "qualified institutional buyers" (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) and "qualified purchasers" for purposes of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended ("QIB/QPs"), on a private placement basis pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act, and may only be held by QIB/QPs for the life of the Notes. Neither the Notes nor any Ordinary Shares or Class A Shares issuable upon exchange of the Notes have been, and the Notes will not be, registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction, or qualified by a prospectus in Canada, and unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or pursuant to an applicable exemption from registration requirements. Following the Reorganization and subject to certain conditions, holders of the Notes will have the right to require the Successor Company to register the resale of any Class A Shares issuable upon exchange of the Notes on a shelf registration statement. Offers and sales in Canada will be made only pursuant to exemptions from the prospectus requirements of applicable Canadian securities laws.
